Terms and conditions

The order is now being processed. Copy and/or artwork should reach Escape Events by the date specified. If copy and/or artwork is not received by the copy date Escape Events reserve the right to put the client's name, address and telephone number in the space booked and charge the full cost of the space.

Cancellation of order must be in writing within seven working days of placing this order, or if the order is placed less than seven days before going to print, no less than 72 hours before going to print.

Every endeavour will be made to ensure the accuracy of the advertisement, but the client shall be responsible for checking all proofs submitted by Escape Events. The publishers can accept no liability for any error which does not materially affect the meaning of the advertisement. If the client has a valid claim in respect of a serious error or non appearance of the advertisement or otherwise Escape Events total liability to the client shall not exceed the cost of the advertisement. Proofs will not be supplied following late copy or unless specifically requested.

Accounts are strictly net, payable within ten days from the date of invoice. If payment is not made on the due date, Escape Events reserve the right to charge the client interest (both before and after judgment) on the amount unpaid at a rate of 2% above Barclays Bank plc's base rate until payment in full is made.

This order confirmation is the publisher's acceptance of the client's order which shall from the date of this confirmation be binding on both parties subject to these terms and conditions to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions.
